Ion Creanga Theatre organises, between the 29th September and the 6th October 2012, the 8th edition of the International Theatre Festival for Children „100, 1000, 1.000.000 stories”.

The festival has a competitive feature and it addresses to theatres – from Romania and from abroad – which have in their repertory performances for children, rendered by actors.

The festival has two categories within which the performances are structured according to the following age groups: 1-4 years and 4-12 years.

The jury, consisting in theatre professionals, from Romania and from abroad, will grant the following awards:

- Best performance award
- Super-Bebe Award - granted for the best performance for the age group 1-4 years
- Best director award
- Best acting award

The theatre managers and the directors of the performances which will be entering the competition are invited by the Festival's organizers to attend, throughout the Festival, all the events that will take place within the frame of the International Theatre Festival for Children „100, 1.000, 1.000.000 stories”.
